

Lets look at Our Jesus Christ

Dear People of God,

Time to reflect this week! I picked up a thought from the word from Word for today. It is all about Jesus Christ-Our Lord & Master.

As Christmas is around the corner lets ponder on his Virgin birth and then flow in to •His sinless life • His atoning death • His bodily resurrection • His mediatory role that brings us face to face with our Father in heaven • His provision of His Holy Spirit , right within us •providing • protecting • directing , •restoring •healing • delivering • giving us life and life in full.

Meditating on Hebrews 2: 1

- 1) He is our only absolute Master who forgives and intercedes for us - when we turn to things of the flesh that draw us to evil, sensual desires/ depravity or any other sin.
- 2) God has placed everything under His authority and through Him, we have inherited this authority. (when we believe and accept Him)
- 3) Jesus Christ lived for a brief time as man, a little lower than angels and as He experienced death bitterness for our sin – now is crowned with glorious honor.
- 4) He towers above all creation.
- 5) All things exist through Him and for Him.
- 6) Jesus the Holy one, makes us Holy / gives us the inheritance as sons and daughters and belong to the same Father as His.
- 7) He experienced death to annihilate the effects of the intimidating accuser who holds us against the power to rob, steal and destroy.
- 8) Jesus Christ sets us free from our entire lives of bondage and slavery to the evil one.
- 9) Jesus Christ did this for us- sons and daughters of God. Therefore, He had to be man and take hold of humanity in every way.
- 10) He is our merciful and faithful king – priest before God.

11) The one who removed our sins, in order to make us one with God

12) He suffered and endured every test and temptation so that He can help us every time, we pass through the ordeals of life.

Please meditate on these words, take them in, and feel so precious and special to God. Your conduit to God is His son Jesus Christ. • Search for Him •. Look for Him •Love Him •. Worship Him and fall in love with Him every day.

Love & Blessings

Ps Hilda