

A TESTIMONY OF ENCOURAGEMENT

The word deliverance makes the believer evade the ministry. The believer believes that deliverance is strictly associated with demons and evil spirits. That this ministry ultimately results in a deliverance ministry with the spirits of darkness being cast off. Very often with a lot of screaming and casting out of demons by the deliverance Pastor.

Let me set your mind with this myth. The screaming and shouting and hours that take for the demons to come out is because the legal rights have not been dealt with. Once inner healing, confession and repentance is done , the demons or operatives of havoc in a person quietly go into the pit of hell reserved for fallen angels in the name of Jesus and the authority vested on the Deliverance Pastor.

Myth two is – while there is a level of demonization or demonic activity that warrants high level deliverance which might be dabbling in the occult, disobedience to the first commandment(Exodus 20;3) -But there are everyday activities by a believer of criticizing, complaining, judging, unforgiveness , bitterness and offences over minor matters collectively warranting a deliverance .

I would recommend this to believers and certainly even to Pastors and leaders who are after all human and have emotional upheavals from time to time.

I thought I would share a rich experience of deliverance of this second type of deliverance from day to day collective offences relating to unforgiveness, offences , rejection ,murmuring and complaining.

I left for the United States in mid-April and had a beautiful holiday with my daughter Prashanthi and family in Florida and my only loving sister Ria in Boston.

I came back with a sharp pain on my shoulder which the ultrasound indicated a complete tear of the shoulder muscle and a frozen shoulder. This then brought a series of afflictions for nearly 3 months which had never happened before. Worry and anxiety crept in. When family and people I had taken the extra mile did not visit me -offences began to develop -all too quickly and thick. A few Ministry issues surfaced which I could not handle and produced stress.

God was taking care of me with food, miracles and daily needs met- but I was focusing on human expectations and the last straw was when I was diagnosed with yet another affliction.

I began to look within and knew it was time to have some spiritual cleansing/deliverance.

Three hours later, my soul was flushed out of all impure thoughts and imaginations. Forgiveness and compassion flowed in my heart and God's word that He had and is with me gave me such joy and strength.

5 days later as I write this testimony with all Glory to God, I am off all medications (I took for 3 months) -which I have put aside since ministry. I feel healed and well within my soul and as in 3 John 1:2) Physically some of the afflictions are there within -but my soul has been healed. I know I will be totally well within days.

Our God loves and heals us /forgives and is there holding us in the palm of His hand-today ,tomorrow and always.

Love & Blessings

Ps Hilda.
